Guests of Social Members have food and beverage privileges only.

Application for Membership

- R4.7 (1) An applicant to become a Full Member must pay the required Entrance Fee in accordance with R8.1(1).
- (2) Subject to R4.12(2), unless and until the applicant is accepted as a Member he or she will have no privileges to use the Club facilities or otherwise with respect to the Club.
- (3) If the applicant refuses Membership or fails to pay any portion of the required Entrance Fee, he or she will forfeit any payments made with respect to the application; if his or her application is rejected by the Club, the payments will be refunded.
- (4) The name of each applicant and that of his or her Spouse, if applicable, along with the names of the Members acting as references for such applicant, must be posted in a conspicuous location in the Club determined by the CEO, for a period of 30 days prior to final approval of membership being considered, and if any Member has a comment, concern or question about the applicant's suitability to become a Member, it must be submitted, in writing, to the CEO within this 30-day period for it to be considered in the application review.

Membership after Separation or Divorce

- R4.8 (1) For the purposes of this section reference to "Former Spouse" means with respect to a Member the person who was the Spouse of the Member prior to the event of either: (a) a written separation agreement evidencing permanent separation or (b) divorce (each, a "Separation Event").

- (2) Upon a Separation Event a Member and the Former Spouse of the Member have the following options:
 - (a) The Member and the Former Spouse may agree that one of them may in future be the Member (regardless which of them was previously the Member) with all rights and privileges of Membership, including the option to add or designate a Spouse as an Associate at no added Entrance Fee. Under this option, the person in such agreement who is not designated as the Member will cease to be a Member or Associate in all respects and will enjoy no preferential joining or rejoining privileges.
 - (b) The Member and the Former Spouse can elect for each of them to be a Member in a "Split Membership", in which case no additional Entrance Fee will be charged to either. In order to exercise this option, there can be no amounts due to the Club by the Member at the time. In the event either the Member or Former Spouse who has made this election for a Split Membership re-marries or enters into a marriage-like relationship (in either case, a "Remarrying Spouse") and adds a Spouse as an Associate to his or her Membership, a Fee of one-half of the then current Entrance Fee must be paid by the Remarrying Spouse.
 - (c) The Member and the Former Spouse may agree that the Member will continue as a Member and the Former Spouse may continue as an Associate, provided the Member cannot add a Spouse as an Associate while a Former Spouse remains as an Associate of that Member.
- (3) The Club requires a written statement signed by each of the Member and the Former Spouse, indicating which option they have selected. The Club will not act as an intermediary in any dispute between a Member and a Former Spouse.
- (4) If the Member and Former Spouse fail to agree on an option set forth in subsection (2) above, they must arrange for a Court of competent jurisdiction, at their own cost, to resolve the matter. Where the Member and Former Spouse fail to provide a written statement contemplated in subsection (2) above within a reasonable time, the Board may suspend or terminate the privileges of one or both of the Member and the Former Spouse.
- (5) An Associate who is a Child whose parents have experienced a Separation Event may, by written agreement of their parents provided to the Club, be assigned to the Membership of either parent Member, and for greater certainty, Children who are siblings need not all be assigned to the Membership of the same parent.

- (6) In the event of a Former Spouse continuing as an Associate of a Member, a separate monthly Statement may be issued to the Former Spouse provided a written agreement with respect to responsibility for charges is entered into with the Club. Notwithstanding a separate Statement being sent to a Former Spouse, the Member remains liable to the Club for amounts on such Statement if not paid by the Former Spouse and R5.2 to R5.5 will apply as if the Statement were sent to the Member. Similarly, even where a Former Spouse pays the Statement issued to him or her, if the Member under whose membership the Former Spouse is an Associate fails to pay required Dues, the rights of the Former Spouse as an Associate may be suspended or terminated.

Combining Two Memberships

- R4.9
- (1) Two Members each in good standing and who become each other's Spouse may choose either to continue with the two existing Memberships or combine them into one Membership (a "Combined Membership") and notify the Club in writing of such request. The Combined Membership may be in the category of either of the Memberships of the two Members as specified in the notification to the Club.
 - (2) Upon a Separation Event of the two Spouses in a Combined Membership, provided the Combined Membership is in good standing, they may choose one of the following:
 - (a) immediately resume the two Memberships by paying at the time of the Separation Event, the lesser of:
 - (i) the current monthly Single Full Member dues at the time of the Separation Event multiplied by the number of months from the date of the Combined Membership; or
 - (ii) one-half the current Entrance Fee; or
 - (b) any of the choices offered under R4.8.
 - (3) In the event of a resumption pursuant to R4.9(2)(a) of the two Memberships which existed prior to the commencement of a Combined Membership, the Members will be deemed to have continued in whichever category and status (i.e. Split or not) of Membership they belonged to prior to the date of commencement of the Combined Membership unabated from that date, and in the case of a Member who was a Full Member prior to the commencement of the Combined Membership, the period during which the Combined Membership existed will count towards qualification for Senior Membership.
 - (4) Upon a Separation Event, the Club requires a written statement signed by each of the Spouses in the Combined Membership, indicating which option they have selected. The Club will not act as an intermediary in any dispute between Members in the Combined Membership.

- (5) If the Spouses in the Combined Membership fail to agree on an option set forth in subsection R4.9(2), they must arrange for a Court of competent jurisdiction, at their own cost, to resolve the matter. Where the parties fail to provide a written statement contemplated in subsection R4.9(2) within a reasonable time, the Board may suspend or terminate the privileges of one or both of the Members in the Combined Membership.

Number of Members

R4.10 The total maximum number of Members, excluding Social and Non-Resident Members, is 3,000, for an estimated 7,400 users. However, that number can be varied by the Board, in its discretion, taking into consideration such things as the available facilities and the extent of their use.

R4.11 The Club roster includes the names of all Members and Spouses and is maintained on the Club's website. Without limiting R2.10, the roster is intended for the private use of Members and Associates, and may not be copied in whole or in part or provided to a person who is not a Member or an Associate without the approval of the Board.

 - (3) The Special Entrance Fees in R8.1(3)(a) and (b), will not be available to a Child of a present or former Member or of a present or former Associate:
 - (a) where a parent of such Child had not been a Full Member or Associate Spouse of a Full Member for 10 years or more at the date of the Child's application; or

These applicants receive no priority in terms of becoming Members and are treated equally with new applicants.

R7.5 The CEO may decline to refer a Complaint to the Executive Committee for further investigation, if the CEO is satisfied that the Complaint:

- (a) is frivolous or vexatious; or
- (b) does not allege facts that, if proved, would constitute Unacceptable Conduct.

R7.6 If the CEO believes that a Complaint discloses conduct warranting further investigation or action, the CEO must report the Complaint to the Executive Committee and make preliminary recommendations to the Executive Committee.

R7.7 The status of a Complaint is its stage of progress through the complaints handling process, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) opened and under consideration;
- (b) under investigation;
- (c) under review;
- (d) referred to the Discipline Committee for a hearing; or

- (a) ensure a competent, fair and timely investigation and resolution of the Complaint; and
- (b) prevent any perceived or actual bias in favour of the Complainant or Person Under Review.

Investigation of Complaints

R7.9 The Executive Committee may decline to investigate a Complaint if the Executive Committee is satisfied that the Complaint:

- (a) is frivolous or vexatious; or
- (b) does not allege facts that, if proved, would constitute Unacceptable Conduct.

R7.10 If the Executive Committee believes that a Complaint merits further investigation, the Executive Committee must appoint an Investigative Committee consisting of three Full or Senior Members or Associates over 27 years of age in good standing each of whom is not then serving as a Director, is not a Spouse of a Director or of another member of the Investigative Committee and is not connected in any way with the Complaint. The Executive Committee must name one of them as IC Chair.

R7.11 Unless otherwise provided by these Rules, the Investigative Committee must deliver to the Person Under Review a copy of the Complaint.

R7.12 Despite R7.11 if the Investigative Committee considers it necessary for the effective investigation of the Complaint, the Investigative Committee may delay notification of the Complaint to the Person Under Review.

R7.13 Despite R7.11, the Investigative Committee may decline to identify the Complainant while the Complaint is under investigation.

R7.14 The Investigative Committee may require the Person Under Review to whom a copy of the Complaint has been delivered to respond to the substance of the Complaint.

R7.15 The response of the Person Under Review under R7.14 must be:

- (a) in writing and, unless the Investigative Committee permits otherwise, signed personally by the Person Under Review; and
- (b) delivered to the Investigative Committee as soon as practicable and, in any event, by the date set by the Investigative Committee.

R7.16 If the Person Under Review does not deliver a response to the Investigative Committee in accordance with R7.15, the Investigative Committee will continue its investigation and may take any steps that it would otherwise be entitled to take under these Rules.

R7.17 After receiving a response from the Person Under Review, the Investigative Committee may deliver to the Complainant a copy of the response.

R7.18 The Investigative Committee may attempt to resolve a Complaint through mediation or other informal means.

The Person Under Review must continue paying dues to the Club during a Temporary Suspension.

Action after Investigation

R7.20 After investigating a Complaint, the IC Chair must report the Investigative Committee’s summary of its investigation and make recommendations to the Executive Committee in writing.

R7.21 The Investigative Committee’s recommendation will be that the Complaint:

- (a) does not disclose conduct warranting further action;
- (b) discloses conduct that may constitute Unacceptable Conduct and warrants a hearing; or
- (c) has been resolved between the Complainant and Person Under Review, subject to the Executive Committee’s review of the Resolution.

R7.22 The IC Chair must advise the Complainant and Person Under Review in writing of the Investigative Committee’s recommendation.

R7.23 When the Investigative Committee recommends no further action under R7.21(a), notice to the Complainant under R7.22 must include:

- (a) the reason for the recommendation; and
- (b) instructions on how to apply for a review of the recommendation to the Executive Committee.

Review by the Executive Committee

R7.24 A Complainant may apply to the Executive Committee for a review of a recommendation by the Investigative Committee under R7.21(a) by applying to the Executive Committee within 30 days after the recommendation is communicated to the Complainant. The Executive Committee will advise the Complainant and Person Under Review of its decision regarding the review within 30 days of receiving the Complainant's request for a review.

R7.25 If the Executive Committee agrees with the Resolution under R7.21(c), the Resolution must be prepared in writing by the IC Chair and, unless the Executive Committee permits otherwise, signed personally by the Complainant and Person Under Review.

Discipline Committee

R7.26 The Executive Committee must appoint a Discipline Committee when:

- (a) the Executive Committee decides a hearing is warranted in relation to a Complaint after a review under R7.24;

or
- (c) the Executive Committee disagrees with the Resolution under R7.21(c).

The Discipline Committee will consist of five people, all of whom will be Members or Associates in good standing and currently serving as Directors and none of whom will be serving as Officers or the CEO at the time of their appointment to the Discipline Committee ("DC Appointees"), and the Executive Committee must appoint one of them as DC Chair.

R7.27 A DC Appointee whose ability to act objectively on the Discipline Committee may be impaired by personal interest must make this declaration immediately and not serve on the Discipline Committee.

R7.28 The Discipline Committee must hear the complaint within 30 days of its appointment; the Discipline Committee may extend the time for the hearing with the consent of the Discipline Committee, the Complainant, or the Person Under Review.

R7.29 The Discipline Committee must provide written notice at least 14 days before the hearing to the Complainant and the Person Under Review, and ensure that they will have an opportunity to be heard.

R7.30 The Discipline Committee may establish procedures for the hearing of the Complaint.

R7.31 Despite R7.32, the Discipline Committee will conduct the hearing of the Complaint in a closed and private session (in camera) in order to:

- (a) protect the Club, its operations, and delivery of its mandate from harm that could result from the release of certain information; and
- (b) protect the Complainant, Person Under Review, or any third parties when the release of certain information would be an unreasonable invasion of their personal privacy.

R7.32 The Complainant, Person Under Review, the Club and the Discipline Committee may be represented by counsel at the hearing of the Complaint at their own expense.

R7.33 If, during the hearing of the Complaint, up to two DC Appointees withdraw from the Discipline Committee, the Discipline Committee may continue the hearing of the Complaint with a minimum of three DC Appointees.

R7.34 The Discipline Committee may make the following findings:

- (b) that the Complaint has been proven, in whole or in part.

R7.37 The findings and orders, if any, of the Discipline Committee (separately or together, a “Decision”) are final and binding.

R7.38 The DC Chair must report the Decision of the Discipline Committee in writing to the Executive Committee.

R7.39 The Decision of the Discipline Committee will be delivered to the Complainant and the Person Under Review, and any orders made will take effect upon delivery. The Decision may be delivered orally, or in writing by hand or by regular mail. Delivery by regular mail to the address of the Person Under Review in the Club’s records will be deemed to have been received seven days after mailing.

R7.40 Regardless of the outcome of a consideration, an investigation, a review or a hearing of a Complaint, the Complainant and the Person Under Review will be responsible for their own costs, if any, incurred in relation to the Complaint, including all legal fees and disbursements.
